Wyoming Taxpayers Association Chairman Bobby Rolston welcomes Ashley Harpstreith as the organization's Executive Director

Cheyenne –“The board of directors of the WTA is pleased to welcome Ashley to lead our organization and continue the group's position as Wyoming's leading tax policy advocate” said Bobby Rolston.

Ashley most recently was CEO/Executive Director of the Goshen County Economic Development Corporation with extensive experience in association management, policy development and advocacy before the legislature.

Harpstreith said, “I am honored to represent the WTA and continue the mission of sound tax policy on behalf of the association and its members.”

Ashley and her family are relocating to Cheyenne this summer and will begin her role as Executive Director on September 1.
